18. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at any extraordinary meeting and all that is transacted at an ordinary meeting with the exception of the consideration of the accounts, balance sheet, income and expenditure account, the reports of the Board of Directors and Auditor's report, the election of directors in place of those retiring by rotation and the fixing of remuneration of the Auditor shall be deemed ordinary.
19. No business shall be transacted, unless the quorum of members are physically or virtually present at the commencement of the business. If the number of members of the Association at the time of the meeting do not exceed ten in number, the quorum shall be five; if they exceed ten, there shall be added to the above quorum one for every five additional members with the limitation that no quorum shall in any case exceed ten.
20. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if called upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; in any other case, it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, and if the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, it shall be adjourned forever.
21. The Chair of the Association shall be entitled to preside at every General Meeting of the Association. If there be no chair or if at any meeting she/he is not present within 30 (Thirty minutes) after the time appointed for holding such meeting or is unable to be present due to illness or any other cause, the members of the Board present at such meeting may choose one amongst themselves to act as chair of the meeting and in default of their doing so, the members present shall choose one of the members of the Board of Directors to take the chair or the members present shall choose one amongst themselves to act as the Chair of the meeting.
22. The Chair may, with the consent of the meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a Meeting is adjourned for ten days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of the adjournment of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
23. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded in accordance with the provisions of clause(c) of subsection (1) of Section 85 of the Act, and unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the Chair that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect in the book of the proceedings of the Association shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof to the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, that resolution.
